Phumers in Austria earn a week, and other labor is paid accordingly. In this country phumers make a week, with wages generally at a corresponding rate. This explains why 80,000 Austrian immigrants sought our shores last year.

The Democratic Chicago Dispatch says of President Harrison:

President Benjamin Harrison steps out of the White House March 4th next. The Nation's palace only holds for him the shadow of a great grief now, and it is hardly possible that with that weighing upon his mind he can feel very keenly his recent defeat. The twenty-third President of the United States leaves the chair with the respect of all good men and all thinking people. There has been no stain upon his personal character, and his administration has been pure, upright and honest, and, from the standpoint of his party, admirable. Benjamin Harrison will go back to his home in the Hoosier Capital leaving behind him the record of a loyal and faithful servant. To set forth these facts is but simple justice.

The severe weather brings out the beauties of Free-trade to the unemployed of London and the chief industrial cities of England. The streets of London continue to be thronged by thousands of worthy men and women who can find no work to do, and are obliged to live on scant charity. The locked-out cotton operatives of Lancashire, numbering thousands, were forced to beg their Christmas dinner. Many have left the town and are wandering about the country. It is almost certain that some of them will be frozen to death. This condition of affairs is due to the suspension of work at many factories "on account of too much Free-trade," as has come to the general interpretation of it.

The Democratic Congress is making a bad start. The New York World says the House trampled upon the Democratic pledges when it passed the bill increasing the allowance of the pensioners of the Mexican War from $9 to $12 a month. With the cost of pension mounting up towards $300,000,000 annually and a Treasury deficit in sight, not a new pension should be voted nor an old one increased. The scheme of pensioning men who were never within a thousand miles of the Mexican frontier was outrageous at the start. To add to their bonities now is little less than a crime. Every dollar heedlessly voted by the present House will make the work of the incoming Administration more difficult and add to the obstacles in the way of tax reduction.

The Hon. Henry Bacon (Dem., New York) Chairman of the House Committee on Coinage, makes an argument in the Forum against the repeal of this tax, and shows why the issue of state bank currency would be unwise. The defenders of the state bank currency desire it because of its elasticity. Mr. Bacon shows that if this currency be sound it will rush to the financial center exactly as our present currency does, and that it will stay in the neighborhood of the banks of issue only if it be so discredited that it will not make its way to the great financial centers. Elasticity, therefore, can be got only if it be below par. He makes the further practical point that, if currency be issued under state laws, there will be the greatest imaginable diversity, because the state laws are in no way uniform, and many of them as they exist today would permit the wildest kind of wildcat issues. This argument is made the more important because the movement to repeal the state bank tax is largely a Democratic movement, and Mr. Bacon is a Democrat, and Chairman of the present committee that has the matter in charge in the House.

The well known trotting stallion Robert McGregor, 2:17, that two years ago cost $38,000, has been bought by John Sloan of Lexington.

SUCCESS AT LAST.
A gray-haired, broken-down old man, with sunken eyes and cheek, climbed up the steps one winter's day, with humble mien and meek.
He rang the bell, and a woman came and stood in the open door.
And she said, "What ails that wrinkled face As he saw his wife once more.
And the old, glad light shone in his eyes, And his husky voice grew clear,
As he said, "It almost knocked me out, But I matched that ribbon, dear."

The present season has been a very discouraging one to traveling theatrical troupes. But very few of them have made expenses, and many have been compelled to disband on account of poor patronage.

The estimated product of whiskey in Kentucky this year is $9,000,000 gallons. As the consumption is only 30,000,000 gallons, the boys will make to increase their tank capacity or there'll be a big overproduction.

RAY, DIAMOND, who claims to hail from La Grange county, Ind., applied to the Mayor of Ironton for a night's lodging. He was offered a room at the city jail, but refused, saying it was not a very appropriate place for a Minister to spend a night. He was given a cushioned chair in the Mayor's apartment.

JAMES FULTY, a prominent farmer and sawmill man of Lexington, this state, went over to Ironton, where he was to marry a young lady, whose name he would not divulge, but upon arriving found the young lady to be a Catholic, and as he was a Presbyterian, and neither would break faith, the match was declared off.

Two children of the Sunday school of the M. E. Church, South, were given a Christmas treat last night. Presents were distributed and the time was pleasantly spent. It is the earnest desire of the officers of the Sunday-school that the congregation should take a greater interest in the school and work to secure a larger attendance.

A YOUNG woman, giving her name as Carrie Collins and claiming this city as home, applied for admission to the city Hospital at Louisville and was admitted, being very sick.

The dividends of the different law factories throughout the country will probably not be as large the coming summer as they were the last on account of the bonafide money furnished by Providence.

JAMES MAY, son of W. H. May, the well known Lexington grocer, robbed his father of nearly $70,000. Eight thousand dollars of the money taken was in bonds. The balance consisted of cash and notes, principally cash. He skipped out with a companion named Lancaster.

PROTRACTED meetings cost money to conduct them. For the late March meeting at Cynthiana it cost $1,000 for seven weeks, and his meeting at Paris of five weeks cost $750. At Cynthiana, neither and singer were paid $500, the tabernacle selling for enough to make loss up to only $130.

No member of Council had anything to offer, and President Cox declared the business of the old Council at an end.

Mr. Cox, on retiring from the Chair, thanked the members for their uniform courtesy and kindness.

City Clerk O'Hare read the returns of the late election. The newly-elected Councilmen, among whom were four new faces—Messrs. Robinson, Hopper, Martin and Wardle—came forward and were sworn in by Mayor Pearce.

Nominations for President were declared in order, and Mr. Pickins nominated Mr. Cox. On motion of Mr. Wade Mr. Cox was unanimously re-elected.

Meers, Wadsworth and Robinson to escort the gentlemen to the chair. Mr. Cox returned thanks for the honor conferred in a brief and appropriate speech.

The next thing in order was the election of the night police from the various wards.

From the First Ward John Mangan, the present officer, Pat O'Brien and S. D. McDowell. The first ballot stood Mangan 10, O'Brien 6 and McDowell 2. Mr. Mangan was declared elected.

C. M. Bland and James M. Rankin were placed in nomination from the Second Ward. Bland received 14 votes and Rankin 4 on the first ballot.

James Downer was elected without opposition from the Third Ward.

Joseph Crawford, from the Fourth Ward, received 15 votes to 8 for Frank Purnell on the first ballot.

From the Fifth Ward W. A. Stockdale received on the first ballot 13, W. T. Highland 4 and W. B. Dawson 1. Mr. Dawson was not nominated.

Richard Medlin was re-elected from the Sixth Ward, receiving 11 votes on the first ballot to 7 for James Dunbar.

The entire force was re-elected.

Mrs. James Hefflin was elected Matron of the Almshouse by the deposit of one ballot.

Drs. C. C. Owens and W. S. Yazell were nominated for City Physician. The first ballot resulted Yazell 11, Owens 6, blank 1. Dr. Yazell was declared elected.

It is no disparagement to Dr. Yazell to say in this connection that Dr. Owens has made a faithful and efficient officer. During the cholera scare in the early fall no health officer in the entire county was more alert than he. His watchfulness and zealous labor were unceasing.

City received a city received a thorough cleaning under his supervision than he had had in years.

The diphtheria epidemic, which threatened disaster to the business interests of the city about the same time, was carefully watched by Dr. Owens, and his statement to the public did much to allay the fear of the people and to inspire confidence among our neighbors who were afraid to come among us.

W. B. Fitzgerald, Marshal-elect, proposed his bond, with William Fitzgerald and Henry J. Shea as sureties.

Wharfman Plaster produced his bond signed by N. Cooper and Omar Dodson.

On C. D. Shepard's case, as Assessor, were P. P. Parker and George T. Wood, and the bond of City Clerk O'Hare was signed by Mrs. Mary O'Hare and E. W. Miller.

James W. Fitzgerald, as Treasurer, gave bond with E. P. Browning, C. H. White, John T. Parker, H. H. Collins, W. B. Matthews and H. G. Wells as sureties.

All of these officers, except Wharfman Plaster, who was not present, came forward and were sworn in by Mayor Pearce.

The Mayor and Marshal were instructed to confer with the new Police Committee in order to procuring a suitable helmet for the police officers.

The Assessor was authorized to have prepared the necessary stationery.

The Council adjourned to meet next Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

A Memory of the War.

A few days ago Major Thomas J. Cienoweth of this city received the official document appointing him Major of the Thirtieth Kentucky Cavalry, C. S. A.

Although he had held the rank and performed the duties for a couple of years previously, the official paper bears date of February, 1865. There was an omission, and it was to have been sent to the Confederate Secretary of War for signature, but the war closed before this was obtained. It was sent to the Major by Colonel Ed. O. Guerrant, who was A. A. G. of Giltner's Brigade, who found it among his war papers while going out there recently. The document was so countersigned by an associate letter from Colonel Guerrant, who is now a prominent Minister.

A MAN OF COURAGE.

James Gathered From Nat. Palace's Big World.

John W. Alexander, ex-Sheriff, and his Deputies produced their list of delinquents, which were examined and allowed, and ordered certified to the Auditor.

The assessment of property for 1892 reported as audited by Alexander and his Deputies by Clerk, was ordered certified to the Auditor.

An inventory and appraisal of the personal estate of Charles Hland was filed and ordered audited by the Auditor.

The certificate of J. James Wood as a pharmacist was renewed for the year 1893.

The same order was made for W. C. Wood.

FRANK SIMS, a colored man of Louisville, voted for CLEVELAND, and the other day he died from woodchuck. A day or two later his woodchuck doctor died too. No wonder.

It appears that HILL of New York has succeeded already in putting a ghost before Mr. CLEVELAND that frightened him more or less, and MORPHY will go to the Senate.

FREE-TRADERS can't go around next least, the outlook for the croakers is cheerless and chilly.

That business was more prosperous in this country during the year just closed than in any previous year is a fact that speaks volumes for our Protective Tariff system.

THERE is no more convincing evidence of the benefits of a Protective Tariff than the number of new manufacturing establishments that have sprung up during the past year.

CHICAGO is scared over intimations of another Anarchist uprising. Just why Chicago expects outsiders to visit the World's Fair until she has proved herself able and willing to suppress the lawless wretches residing within her gates is past finding out. Possibly she wants everybody to bring a gun to assist in keeping the peace.

SOME of our Republican contemporaries are of opinion that the Republican party would now be in power in Kentucky had it opposed the adoption of the new Constitution and nominated a first-rate ticket. Not so, brothers; were such things possible, if the Republican party had GEORGE WASHINGTON as its candidate for Governor, the average Kentucky Democrat would vote for BEN-EDICT ARNOLD in preference.

THE controversy over the control of the Wyoming Legislature has been decided in favor of the Democrats by the Supreme Court of Wyoming, which is Republican. The dispute was chiefly one of technicalities, and the Supreme Court very properly disregarded the partisan aspects of the matter and considered only the legal features involved.
And yet Senator BLACKBURN, in his speech in this city during the recent campaign, said that no Republican Court ever decided a case in favor of the Democrats.

Dickens' Works are the most widely read of any novels printed in any language. The popularity of Dickens is ever increasing, and every person should own a full set of his works.
Charles Dickens is eminently the novelist of the people. His books teem with shafts of sparkling wit, touches of pathos, threads of satire; his characters are original and real as well as quaint and grotesque; he utters every note in all its forms. The lights and shadows of life are delineated in a brilliant and dramatic style. To own a complete set of his incomparable books is to be possessed of
